Job Title: Hosts and Backservers

Come work for James Beard Award-Winning Chef Linton Hopkins!

Passionate Friendly People needed for Restaurant Eugene.

Located on Peachtree Road, the main corridor of the city of Atlanta, Georgia, Restaurant Eugene defines Atlanta cuisine. Chef and owner Linton Hopkins is an Atlanta native who grew up in and currently lives in a neighborhood that is within walking distance to where the restaurant sits. His formal culinary training in New York and experience working in fine restaurants in New Orleans and Washington, D.C. have equipped him with the technique and background to execute sophisticated classic cuisine. The food, in concert with a thoughtful wine list, guided by the restaurant's co-owner and sommelier Gina Hopkins, truly creates a "fine dining" experience. Embracing hospitality, there is a spirit about Restaurant Eugene that makes the restaurant completely comfortable and welcoming for all.

Our Players are part of a Hospitality Team of Excellence:
- Flexible schedule with weekend availability needed.
- Have the wherewithal to use good judgment.
- Have the ability to work well under pressure.
- Have a vested interest in fostering teamwork.
- Be proactive in recognizing what needs to be done and doing it before being asked.

If you want to work in a fantastic environment with a well-established restaurant please email your resume to careers@restauranteugene.com to set up an interview. Please do not show up at the restaurant without an appointment.

Cheers!
