UGA Dining Services Summer Internship

Application Deadline: March 15, 2018

Position: 2 Full-time, Paid

Timeframe: 05/31/18 — 07/25/18

Description

UGA Dining Services is operated by the Auxiliary Division of the University of Georgia and is a service for students, faculty, staff and visitors. The division is totally self-supporting and receives no funding from University, State or Federal sources and all meal plan options are voluntary for students. Dining Services is operated very much like a commercial restaurant. All expense incurred, including the cost of food, payroll and operating expense, must be covered by revenue generated in the food service operations on campus. We strive to be diversified in our menu selections and to offer our customers a wide variety of service options and styles. We are honored to be nationally recognized as a leader in the industry through the Loyal E. Horton Dining Awards for Excellence, the National Restaurant Association Great Menu Design Award, the Food Management Industry Leadership Award, the IFMA Silver Plate Award for College Food Service Operator of the Year – 2002, and the prestigious Ivy Award for Excellence. The culinary team at UGA has also received numerous culinary awards from the NACUFS National and Regional Culinary Challenges. University of Georgia Dining Services operates five dining commons and over 20 retail concepts at the state’s flagship university. Our Dining Commons serve over 18,000 meals per day and include a 24-hour location and multiple 7 day locations. Our retail outlets include brands such as Chick-Fil-A, Panda Express, Starbucks, and the first joint Caribou Coffee/Einstein Brothers Bagels unit on a college campus. With 82 national awards, the University of Georgia Dining Services program stands tall as one of the premier dining programs in the country.

The internship is designed to provide work experience and knowledge in multiple areas of the Dining Services program to include, but not limited to: management, nutrition, ordering, cooking, stocking, leadership, cleaning, staffing, planning, marketing, recipe writing, etc. This is a paid internship with a pay rate of $9.00/hr. Housing in the student dorms and a seven-day meal plan will be provided. Uniforms will also be provided.

Successful candidates will be scheduled for 40 hrs/week (Internship will run 8 weeks from Thursday, May 31, 2018 through Wednesday, July 25, 2018). Some nights and weekends will be required. (Internship will run 8 weeks from Thursday, May 31, 2018 through Wednesday, July 25, 2018).
