

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY invites applications for multiple tenure-track position openings at all levels (Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor) effective Fall 2012. Areas of need are financial, managerial, auditing, tax, and information systems. Candidates must have a doctorate in Accounting (or related field) from an AACSB accredited university and high potential for strong publication and teaching. Candidates for appointment at Associate Professor or Professor should have a national reputation based on current research record in top-quality journals. Exceptional candidates who are eminent scholars with international reputations may also be considered for appointment to a chair or professorship. Candidates for more senior positions should have demonstrated ability to develop and work with others in defining and conducting meaningful research and mentoring junior faculty; these positions will enhance the research capability of the School of Accountancy and will play leadership roles in the SOA. Salaries are competitive. Positions are contingent on budget approval. To apply, letter of application, curriculum vitae, examples of scholarly work, three recommendation letters, and teaching evaluations should be emailed (preferred) to SOAjobsTT@gsu.edu or mailed to Galen Sevcik, School of Accountancy, Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, PO Box 3989, Atlanta, GA 30302. Preference may be given to applications received by November 1, 2011. Georgia State University is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Affirmative Action Employer.
