

Faculty Search Announcement
Business Analysis/Quant. Methods - Non-Tenure Track/Clinical Faculty
Department of Managerial Sciences
Robinson College of Business
Georgia State University
Atlanta, Georgia

The Robinson College of Business seeks applications and nominations for multiple non-tenure track positions in the area of Business Analysis/Quantitative Methods. The positions include teaching at the graduate and/or undergraduate levels in the College's academic programs. The positions are rank open but we expect to hire at either the Clinical Assistant Professor or Lecturer level, depending on applicant qualifications (doctorate required for Clinical Assistant Professor, and preferred). Clinical faculty hold academic titles (i.e. Clinical Assistant Professor, Clinical Associate Professor, Clinical Professor) and have opportunities for promotion based upon demonstrated excellence in teaching and being active in scholarship that includes the scholarship of teaching and may include practitioner and/or disciplinary research. The successful candidates will begin employment in August, 2012.

Candidates for this position must have an earned master's or doctoral degree in a relevant field from an AACSB accredited university and demonstrated ability for teaching excellence within Business Analysis/Quantitative Methods. The capability for publishing research in refereed journals (pedagogical, practitioner or disciplinary) is necessary for a Clinical position. Salary and other types of support are competitive with other research universities. Though the primary teaching assignment will be in Business Analysis/Quantitative Methods, an ability to teach in Operations Management is a plus. The positions are contingent upon final budget approval by the University.

Georgia State University and the Robinson College of Business are growing institutions that provide exceptional opportunities for their faculty members. There are many outstanding faculty colleagues with interests in Business Analysis and other related areas in the Department of Managerial Sciences and in other units of the College, the University, and neighboring universities in the Atlanta area. Georgia State University is located in the heart of Atlanta, home to the headquarters of 10 Fortune 500 companies, numerous regional headquarters, and a large number of regional, national and global enterprises. The Robinson College of Business, accredited by the AACSB, is one of the largest in the country with approximately 6,000 undergraduate, 1,700 master's and 100 PhD students. Our MBA program for working professionals has been ranked among the top ten part-time programs in the nation by U.S. News & World Report and our Executive MBA is on the Financial Times list of the world's best EMBA programs. Excellence in teaching is highly valued. Georgia State has an extensive evening program and has strong ties with the Atlanta business community, many of whom are alumni of the College.

Applications received by October 1, 2011 are guaranteed full consideration; however we will continue to review applications until the position is filled. To apply, email a letter of application, vita and evidence of teaching effectiveness to: Dr. Sub Samaddar at: busanlyqmcl@gsu.edu. Please put "Non-Tenure Track Business Analysis" in the subject line. If necessary, applications may be sent by mail to Dr. Samaddar at the following address: Department of Managerial Sciences, Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, P.O. Box 4014, Atlanta, GA 30302-4014. Be sure to indicate in the cover letter that you are applying for a non-tenure track Business Analysis position.

Three reference letters should be sent separately by the letter writers as a pdf file (preferred) to the email address above or, if necessary, by mail to the mailing address noted above.

Georgia State University is an equal opportunity educational institution and an affirmative action employer.