Mark Mesler

tax principal

EY

For the first 12 years of his career, Mark Mesler was a trial attorney for IRS Chief Counsel, where he represented the agency before the U.S. Tax and Bankruptcy Courts. He specialized in complex litigation and bankruptcy matters. Mesler was also designated a Special Assistant United States Attorney.

Mesler joined EY in 2000. He leads the company's Tax Policy & Controversy Services in the U.S.-Central region, representing clients before all levels of the IRS. Mesler is also EY's U.S.-Central tax quality leader, advising EY professionals on risk issues, ethical standards, and professional responsibility.

Mesler was a member of the Internal Revenue Service Advisory Council and served as chair of the Large Business & International sub-group of IRSAC.

Mesler received his law degree from Georgia State University, where he concentrated in tax law and litigation. He is a member of the Georgia Bar.
